

Phd. Lecturer Cristian Calin Merce
Academic topics: microeconomics, macroeconomics, statistics
E-mail address: cristiancmerce@hotmail.com

Date and place of birth: 8.02.1971, Cluj-Napoca, Cluj County, Romania

I. Education:

University studies:

1991-1996, “Babes-Bolyai” University, Faculty of Economical Sciences, specialized in Tourism and Services (economist)

PHD studies:

2006, PHD in economics, “Babes Bolyai” University, director professor Gheorghe Popescu

Academic experience:

2007-present, PhD lecturer at Faculty of Horticulture, Department of Economical Sciences: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics and Statistics

1998-2007, junior assistant and then assistant at Faculty of Horticulture: Accounting, Management, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics and Statistics

II. Research domains of interest:

Market structures, Utility Theory, Statistics and Probabilities

IV. Professional affiliations:

2006 Member of the Economist Engineers Consortium from Romania

2007 Member Of the Romanian Horticulture Society

V. Significant achievements:

Books:9

Merce C. C. (2002) – Caracteristici definitorii ale agriculturii românești, Editura Aletheia, Bistrița, 139 pagini,

Merce C.C. (2006). Agricultura Europei – stări, tendințe, perspective. Editura AcademicPres, Cluj-Napoca, 278 pagini

Merce C.C. (2007) – Microeconomie, Editura AcademicPres, Cluj-Napoca, 150 pagini

Scientific papers: 83

Cristian Merce, Mugurel Jitea, Diana Dumitras. (2012) A distribution with finite mean and infinite variance

Cristian C. Merce (2013) A New Definition of Singleton Probability for Continuous Probability Distributions

Research grants: 13 from which 1 as director

MERCE C. si colab; (2006) - Metode si tehnici de gestionare a productiei in cadrul exploatatiei agricole

26 October, 2016

Signature,
Phd. Lecturer Cristian Merce